

The 2nd Annual Bilingual/Bicultural Ed. & Applied Linguistics/TESOL Student Symposium

“Language Instruction & Learning: Field Applications”

Call for Master's Student Proposals

Deadline

All proposals must be submitted to bbe.altisoljointsymposium@gmail.com by 5:00pm EST, March 23, 2015.

Types of Proposals

You may submit proposals for papers or panels related to the theme: Language Instruction & Learning: Field Applications. Papers about policy, original research, teacher development, and other topics dealing with pedagogy and research in the field of Bilingual/Bicultural Education or Applied Linguistics and TESOL will be considered.

Adjudication of Proposals

Submitted proposals will be refereed by master's degree students at the host university, Teachers College, Columbia University

Proposal Requirements (One-Page Maximum)

First and Last Name

Institution and Field of Study

Project Title

Include: 50-word abstract, research questions, data collected, analytical methods and findings, and significance to the conference theme.

May 1st, 2015

When 11:00am – 4:00pm

Where Thompson Hall 136,
Teachers College,
Columbia University
525 West 120th St.
New York, NY 10027

Who Master's students from the programs in Bilingual/Bicultural Education & Applied Linguistics/TESOL at: Teachers College, Columbia University; New York University; Hunter College; Bank Street College

Refreshments and lunch will be served

Like us on Facebook at:

<https://www.facebook.com/MastersStudentSymposium>

If you plan to attend, please RSVP at <http://tinyurl.com/LanguageInstruction-Learning> by April 24, 2015